

You are Invited
Roundtable Discussion hosted by NASILC
Wednesday, January 19th, 2022
3:30- 5:00 p.m. (Eastern time)

This roundtable discussion is for SILCs only. It will be facilitated by Justice Shorter who will offer suggestions and ideas to enable SILCs to begin thinking about how to tailor their efforts toward the needs of marginalized communities while providing some best practices. It will further guide in the process of developing an understanding of your community landscape with the following three questions in mind:

1. Are the SILC boards Diverse?
2. Is the Network serving marginalized communities?
3. How can the SILC support the network with providing best practices in Equity, Inclusion and Opportunities?

At the end of the facilitated discussion, there will be a 30 minute time slot allotted for those that desire a deeper conversation with Justice.

Black woman wearing dark glasses, black jacket with a light purple blouse

Justice Shorter is a Disability Justice Advocate and Black Disabled Lives Matter amplifier. She is a national expert on disability inclusive disaster protections, emergency management and humanitarian crises/conflicts. She has reached thousands through her work as a global trainer/facilitator on critical issues at the intersection of race, disability, class, gender and sexuality. Justice is driven by an ever-lasting love for people of color with disabilities and fueled by hope of a future that is fiercely free. You can read more about Justice on her website at <https://justiceshorter.com/>.

To register for the roundtable, please click the following link. Once you register you will receive an email with the link to join the discussion. Please do not share the link to join. It will be unique to your credentials.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZwpfumsrzMiGNXCgn0BGmy17jzo3jzcpndq>